

ABOUT AXXENT

Axxent is an urban Latin group, whose repertoire includes elements of Hip-Hop, R&B and Latin grooves. Their innovative music and international appeal respond to today's multicultural urbanites with a new sound for the global age – one that is true to urban hip-hop and cuts across ages, races and cultures. Both lead members boast an extensive artistic resume and bring something unique to the table.

Delwin G is an east coast Dominican rapper of relentless drive and wicked battle skills in both English and Spanish. Raket AKA Lady O is an extraordinary European songwriter who combines old school sensibility with island rhythm, well crafted pop hooks and streetwise rap in English, Spanish, Italian and French.

To add to their international vibe is The Axxent Dance Crew – a squad of the most talented hip-hop dancers in Los Angeles headed by lead choreographer Timothy Fahey. Tim has worked with artists such as Bobby Valentino's, Ginuwine, Pit Bull, Chris Brown and Missy Elliot.

Axxent's sound and performance is as dynamic as their energy, a wild reflection of rhythms, cultures, harmonies and flows. It would be foolish of the industry to sleep on this rare brand of fusion, one where all the elements are perceptible yet inseparable.
